A. W. Billings, of Chicago, offers to bet $20,000 that Cleveland will be elected and that he will carry New York Illinois and Wisconsin.
Keep your eye on Illinois. In 1890 Wilson the Democratic nominee was appointed by 9817 votes.
The two delegates from the first congressional district of Kentucky to the National Democratic Convention voted for Cleveland, and for Gray.
Senator Stewart has offered a substitute for his free silver coinage bill. He now proposes to exclude foreign silver from the privilege of free coinage.
Wm J. Campbell has been selected as chairman of the Republican National Convention, in the place of J. S. Clarkson, who declined to serve any longer.
The fight for the Prohibition nomination for President in the Cincinnati Convention has narrowed down to Gen. Bidwell and W. J. Denham; a dark horse, however, is not an improbability.
It is said that the name of Mrs. Helen M. Gougar will be presented to the Prohibitionist Convention as a candidate for Vice-President. Rev. Sam Small is seeking for the same honor. Three cheers for the woman.
The Third Party leaders are urging Judge Greenham to accept their nomination for President. Greenham has heretofore been a Republican but he endorses the Third Party platform except the sub-treasury scheme. He pleads poverty as his excuse for declining the honor.
There is trouble between the workmen and the firm at the Carnegie iron works at the Homestead plant, in Pennsylvania, and it is a about wages. It is said that all the Union men will be discharged July 1, and non-Union men put to work. If this be done, several thousand men will be idle.
In a national convention Kentucky may not furnish presidential timber, but with her Carlisle, Waterson, McKinsie and Owen, she is the peer of any state, and would not exchange her standing in the galaxy of States for that of those which do furnish the presidents.
The ex-President of the Farmers Alliance in Kansas, Frank McGrath, has renounced his allegiance to the Alliance and returned to the Republican party. He says that he has discovered that the Alliance is an "office-seeking, bonding annex to the Democratic party."
The Third Party convention in Tennessee elected delegates to the National convention at Omaha, but deferred the nomination of a candidate for Governor until after the Democrats make a nomination. It is currently rumored that if Governor Buchanan is nominated, the Third Party will vote for Governor.

Protection Doomed.
There was much shivering and juggling over slavery before the issue was squarely met, just as the Democrats have been shivering and juggling over protection; but from Chicago now comes the naked issue against the mastery of the monopoly. The naked issue against the monopoly will repeat itself. "Black is trade" was only no longer to the party account. The Harrison was the cry of plumes itself on the re with. It is only the new tariff, which is only free trade—or rather for free trade, and Webster was its sentiment in one of the ablest speeches of his life, and it now would prefer free trade to monopoly where only a few years ago the average popular vote was two to one Republican. It is now not only against monopoly protection, but under the cutting last greed, it is now largely against all protection, and the tariff platform just adopted here will be an inspiration to revolution, and to the Rocky mountains and the Pacific coast.
Congressman John R. Fellows, one of the leaders of Tammany Hall in an interview says these will be no sulking among New York Democrats. Of Senator Hill he says: "He will do more hard work than almost any other man. He is a Democrat; a strong willing man who never sneaks, and will do all in his power for the success of the party."
Again, I will say that the Republican who thinks that the New York Democracy will be apathetic in this campaign will grievously admit his error. I do not mean to say that we have changed our opinions, for we still believe that with Cleveland the fight in New York is harder, but we are prepared to make a hard, determined fight, and will make one."
The head of the ticket the tail of the ticket and the platform is meeting with the hearty approval of Democrats every where. The campaign opens most auspiciously for the Democrats; the prospects for electing the ticket are flattering.
The legislature has been in session 181 days, and if the past is the best prophet of the future that body will be in session the remainder of the 365 days and then leave work undone.
The Jessamine Journal is not pleased with the new local option bill. It says: "The Senate has amended the Local Option bill until it must suit exactly every man interested in the sale of liquor. As it stands it is plain trucking to the liquor traffic and an insult to the temperance people of the State. Surely no State was ever afflicted with a legislature body more in league with the corrupt elements of society than is the Kentucky Senate."
The National Prohibition Convention convened in Cincinnati yesterday. There are 1191 delegates.
Already the campaign has commenced. The first and biggest is that Adlai E. Stevenson gave his influence towards disrupting the Union during the late unpleasantness. Mr. Stevenson promptly nails the lie.

A BLACK PARTY.
The Negroes of Texas Making an Independent Political Organization—The Platform.
San Antonio, Tex., June 28.—Guadalupe county saw the birth of a new party which has no connection with the Democracy, Republicanism, Prohibition or any political organization heretofore existing. Indeed it is opposed to them all. Under a call issued by B. Berry, a large number of negroes assembled in mass meeting and portected a permanent organization, with B. Berry as Chairman, and adopted a platform which calls for negro nominations for every office within the gift of the American people, from President down to Constable. It renounces Democracy is inherently opposed to the African; that Republicanism has been false to him; that there is no hope for him in the People's party, and that he is the national balance of power. Delegates from every voting precinct were duly appointed and a convention called for July 22.

A Tennessee Farmer Lynched his Neighbor for Murdering his Wife.
The charge against him was murder, and that he was guilty, there is but little doubt. Mr. Bates was beaten to death with a fence rail last Thursday morning, while gathering vegetables for dinner. The alleged discovery of the crime was made by Bates when he went to the house for dinner, and he started the report that his wife had been outraged and murdered. Her skull has been crushed and her face horribly mutilated. Unfortunately for Bates these appeared before the coroner's jury a neighbor woman, who swore that she had seen Bates beating his wife and heard her screaming.

Lightning Destroys the Lives of Two Little Girls in Carter County Kentucky.
Enterprise Ky., June 27.—Lightning struck the residence of Wilburn Hall, Jr., near County's Crossroads, last night, considerably damaging it and killing his two little girls, Mary and Birdie, aged fourteen and twelve years. The other members of the family were badly shocked, and the father and mother are prostrated with grief.
The Trial of Alice Mitchell.
Memphis, Tenn., June 27.—The case of Alice Mitchell, the slayer of Freda Ward, was called in the Criminal Court this morning, but after a consultation between the defense and the State it was decided to postpone the trial until September, on account of the absence of two State witnesses and the extreme heat Judge Dubose, however, said that as the killing was done in January, six months ago, it was time to go to trial, and after some further discussion the case was reset for July 18. Both sides will be ready by that date.
The Case of R. Y. Rhomans, Jr.
Central City, Ky., June 27.—R. Y. Thomas, an account of whose actions was given in Saturdays Courier Journal, was not shot, as supposed by some, but arrested Saturday on peace warrants sworn out by those whose lives he threatened, and whose bonds were fixed at $300 for each offense, amounting to over $2,000. He was given until this evening to give bond, and has failed to do so, and went to Greenville under guard today, and succeeded in getting out a writ of habeas corpus, which will take him trial to Greenville tomorrow. He fled between twenty and thirty damage suits against citizens of Central City to-day.

A HORRIBLE DEATH.
Joe Hudson, an Employee of the DeKoven Mining Company, Found Dead.
DeKoven, June 24.—Was he killed by the cars or was he dead when the cars struck him? Old man Joe Hudson was either killed outright this morning by a train of loaded cars coming out of the O. V. Mining Co's slope or fell in a fit and died. No one knows just how he met his death. He was employed by the company to keep up fire in the furnaces. He was a very old man and subject to epileptic fits, as I have been told, this morning by two physicians who have attended him and his family for many years. The engineer, John Shaw had his engine in motion hosting a trip of loaded cars out of the mines, and when the trip was almost out he discovered the engine was pulling heavily, as it sometimes does when a car leaves the track, consequently he shot off the steam and notified the hands on the tip that something was wrong and that some of them had better go down the slope and investigate the matter. Among those who went down was John Battger, who helped to get the old man from under the third car in the blood and flesh which had been cut from the bones of the victim. His left arm was broken in two places, his left leg almost cut in two, his head mashed to a pulp and his body mangled in a manner too horrible to mention.—Surgis Enterprise.

gratitude for the confidence imposed in me. It has been the custom of the county to endorse all past Sheriffs who have asked it of the people, and feeling that my treatment of the people has been such as to merit an endorsement at your hands, I announce myself as a candidate for re-election.

JUDGE W. W. ROBERTSON,

Is a candidate for Congress from this, the First District. Election, Nov. 1892. He is subject to the action of the Democratic party.
JUDGE JAMES CAMPBELL, OF McCRACKEN COUNTY.
Is a candidate for Congress from this, the First District. Election, November, 1892. He is subject to the action of the Democratic party.
JOHN K. HENDRICK,
OF LIVINGSTON COUNTY.
Is a candidate for Congress from the Democratic party.
To THE VOTERS OF CRITTENDEN COUNTY.
I hereby announce myself as a candidate for re election to the office of Circuit Court Clerk subject to the action of the Republican party. I wish to return to the people of this county my heart felt thanks for the support given in the past. Whatever may be my lot in the future one of the brightest spots in my life will be the memory of what the people of Crittenden county have done for me. I have endeavored to regulate my official conduct as to be worthy of the confidence reposed in me and the honor conferred upon me. My official life is before you. If I have discharged the duties of the office with a conscientious regard for the interest of the people, without partiality to any party or shade of political belief but treating all men exactly alike, and if I have performed the work of the office properly and right I respectfully ask an endorsement at your hands. For the next term if elected, I can promise nothing more than what I have earnestly endeavored to do in the past to faithfully and impartially discharge every duty incumbent upon the officer with profound gratitude for your support.
Very Respectfully,
H. A. HAYES.
To THE VOTERS OF CRITTENDEN COUNTY: I respectfully announce myself a candidate for the office of Circuit Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic party. I have for twenty four years stood with the rank and file of the party, and with them borne the heat and burden of the day, in doing so, I simply expressed my conviction of the policy of the two great parties of the country. While I am a democrat I have always cheerfully recognized the right of my neighbor to entertain and express different opinions. In this office its occupation can in no way make or influence the laws of State or Nation and I maintain it should be filled regardless of political prejudice and without pandering to parties, the people should with reference to the position and standing of the man, and ever with a zealous regard for his qualifications to discharge the duties of the office, select and elect a good man and not a partizan.
My business training has lead me for a number of years in a channel which taught and instructed me in the duties of this office, and without presumption or egotism I feel that I am qualified for the discharge of its duties, and can promise if elected to make a faithful and competent clerk. To my many friends of all parties if you can agree with me in the sentiment I have here expressed I ask your suffrage and if it should be my good fortune to be your choice you will ever have my heartfelt gratitude, and I assure you I shall recognize and appreciate my position if elected, as that of a public servant and from no official act of mine will any man know my politics.
Very Respectfully,
J. R. FINLEY.
